Re: Ruiyan Zhuang

With reference to the above named person, I am pleased to confirm the following information .

Ruiyan joined Accenture on 16 June 2021 and currently holds the position of Packaged App Development Analyst (Management Level 11). Her employment is considered to be of a permanent nature.

In all our dealings with Ruiyan, we have found her to be thoroughly reliable and trustworthy individual who would not undertake any commitment she was unable to meet.

I trust that this is the information you require; it is given in the strictest confidence and, whilst every effort has been made to ensure the above details are correct, the Company will accept no financial or other liability, which may arise.

Yours faithfully
